Putting the Fun in FUNdraising

Our Conservative Government is now six months into its mandate, and much has been accomplished in the five priority areas established by Prime Minister Harper—accountability, taxes, crime, child-care and health care.

What has been accomplished here in our own backyard in the riding of Ottawa South? We have a 30 member Board of Directors working to sew the seeds in Ottawa South for the election of a Conservative MP in the next Federal election. Since the winter election, we have sponsored three breakfast meetings, held our first fundraising golf event in conjunction with our neighbours in the riding associations of Nepean-Carleton and Carleton-Mississippi Mills, and will be holding our annual corn roast on August 10th at the Billings Estate. Please come out and join us!

Above all, we are actively seeking an Ottawa South candidate to stand up for conservative values in opposition to the Liberal incumbent in the next election. Before we can hold a nomination event, we need money in the bank and an active membership in our riding. How can you help? Consider approaching a member of the community who you feel might be willing and able to stand for nomination as a candidate. Come out to events sponsored by the riding association. Renew your membership. Volunteer in an area which interests you. But most of all make a tax deductible financial contribution to the Ottawa South Conservative Association. Your contribution will enable us to continue to raise awareness of Conservative values and put forth a strong candidate. Ottawa South needs an effective MP sitting as a Conservative in the next Conservative majority government.

Please fill out the attached contribution form and return it to us.

OSCA Volunteer Participation Form

From time-to-time, your Association's Board of Directors needs your help to plan and organize activities and events for everyone to enjoy. This is especially true during election campaigns. Consequently, we are always on the look out for people to step forward and volunteer some of their time to help us make our Association a valued organization in the constituency of Ottawa South.

If you would like to be included among those who we may call upon for assistance throughout the year, please join our 'talent-bank' by filling out the form below and sending it to your Association. Your participation will be most welcomed and appreciated. For further information on election preparedness or volunteerism, contact Michael McNeil at 613-820-9919 or email vp1-2006@ottawasouth.ca
